

Key

- Town Trail Buildings of Interest
- Footpaths
- Parking
- Toilets
- Information
- Picnic Site
- Recycling Point
- Petrol Station
- Library
- Museum & Gallery

Rhayader

Rhayader lies in the very heart of Wales, sheltered by the Cambrian Mountains and cupped by hills rising to over 1500 feet. Set some 700ft above sea level in the beautiful Upper Wye Valley, the town is midway between Hereford and Abergystwyth, halfway between Snowdonia and the Brecon Beacons.

Gigrin Farm
Red Kite
Feeding Station

To Llanwrthwl 3 miles
and Bulth Wells 13 miles and South Wales